VERIFICATION: I understand that, if offered employment, I may be required to submit to a physical examination, which may include a drug test as part of the application process, and that I must satisfactory pass such an examination before I can start work. I further understand I must meet and maintain driving record standards if employment may require driving.

I have read and fully understand the questions on this application for employment. I have completely, truthfully, and accurately answered each and every question to the best of my knowledge. I understand that all the inquiries on this application are subject to verification and authorize any schools I have attended, licensing & certification boards, current and previous employers to provide Alpine Township with any information it requests, pursuant to its investigation and employment decision. I also specifically waive written notice from any and all former employers regarding their disclosure to Alpine Township of any prior disciplinary action, and in exchange for Alpine Township considering my application for employment, I waive any claim against Alpine Township, it's agents, employees, and elected officials arising from such investigation or disclosure, including, but not limited to any claim for invasion of privacy, or any claim for defamation, including both libel and slander. I understand that any misrepresentation of the information I have supplied, or failed to supply, can result in the rejection of this application, or, if I have been hired, an immediate dismissal, at the sole discretion of Alpine Township. I further understand and agree that, if I am hired, unless I am covered by written agreement to the contrary, signed by me, that employment is at will and may be terminated, either by me or Alpine Township, at any time, with or without notice or cause. It is with this full understanding of Alpine Township's exclusive right to make such discharge decisions, that I will accept any employment offered to me.
